Dr Obrad Piljak, president of the Bosnia-Hercegovina Presidency, informed us today that he had received a reply from Slobodan Milosevic, president of the Serbian Presidency, on Monday 30 October, to his letter that related to the contentious report by the Serbian State Security Service.

The letter from Slobodan Milosevic says: I have passed on the letter that you sent me together with all the documents that you attached, to the authorized organs of the Socialist Republic of Serbia. In a regular and legal procedure, in line with our firm orientation toward the functioning of the rule of law, they will inform the authorized organs of the Socialist Republic of Bosnia-Hercegovina of their findings. In the firm belief that the time has passed when the truth could be concealed, I send you comradely greetings.

Dr Obrad Piljak will inform delegates of the Bosnia-Hercegovina assembly of the contents of Slobodan Milosevic's letter at a session scheduled for 7 November.
